In Re: School Deficit

Dear Council Members:

The Education Liaison committee of the Common Council met on July 16 with various school officials.

As you will recall, the Board of Education finished the 1979-1980 fiscal year with a deficit. The amount of the deficit is $13,443.64. You will further recall that the Council has appropriated $45,000 to the Board of Education in relation to the 79-80 year.

The committee recommends that the Comptroller be authorized to pay the outstanding obligations.

The committee recommends this action based on the testimony of the Director of Finance and the Comptroller. The committee does not, however, do so enthusiastically. The committee continues to oppose shoddy financial scrutiny which results in overspending.

Respectfully submitted,

The Education Liaison committee of the Common Council met on July 16 with various school officials.

Estimated grants for the fiscal year that ended June 30 amounted to $1,625,800. This figure was an estimate. Actual revenues will total to $2,210,126.
