in the Marian Anderson Studio at
The Danbury Museum & Historical Society
43 Main Street, Danbury, CT 06810

Carol Birch presents: Will We Ever See their Likes Again?

This program celebrates the immigrants who, at the turn of the century, left their homes and entered the U.S. through Ellis Island to blend into the great melting pot of American culture. There are songs which speak of loved ones left behind, never to be seen again. The stories tell of women and men and children who put their faith in the untested promises of early twentieth century America. For some, dreams were abandoned; for others, the "American Dream" was made manifest.

This special history event is FREE & Open to the Public at 2pm

In 1998 Carol Birch received the National Storytelling Network's Circle of Excellence Award given to storytellers recognized as master tellers by their peers, setting standards for excellence, and demonstrating a commitment and dedication to the art over a significant period of time.

Thirty years of experience have earned her a respected place in the forefront of the revival of storytelling.

Media appearances include ABC's NIGHTLINE and CBS, THIS MORNING, Channel 5 in Boston, National Public Radio, Glamour Magazine and the New York Times.
