

The Joy of Reading: A Concert with Al deCant

The Singing Principal

Friday, May 24

11:00 a.m. - Noon

For preschool and elementary age children and their families
StoryCorner

Enjoy a musical journey with singer, songwriter and storyteller Al deCant, also known as "The Singing Principal." This enthusiastic principal promotes the joy of reading and empowers kids to discover their own potential for making a difference in their world. Al's spirited performance is packed with toe-tapping music, great stories and heaps of audience participation that celebrate the reading experience for preschool to elementary students.

Free. No registration.

For more information call 203-797-4528.

Al deCant taught elementary school children for over 15 years and is currently an elementary school principal in Connecticut. He actively performs throughout Connecticut. He is also a presenter for the Connecticut Association for the Gifted – Minds in Motion and the Early Childhood Development Council.

 Danbury Library

170 Main Street, Danbury, CT 06810 203.797.4505
danburylibrary.org