Honorable Members of the Common Council
City of Danbury, Connecticut

Dear Common Council Members:

A local business owner is offering to donate a fully-trained police dog to the City of Danbury. Bob Parker, owner of several Domino's Pizza franchises in the greater Danbury area, will contract with a law enforcement K-9 kennel to purchase the dog for use by the Danbury Police Department. Mr. Parker has named the dog "Domino."

You may recall the Danbury Police Department previously had a successful K-9 and a highly decorated police dog named Falk under the direction of Sgt. Bruce Bertram. Falk retired after a distinguished career and the K-9 unit was disbanded. This donation will allow the Danbury Police Department to continue the K-9 unit.

Please accept this gracious donation from Bob Parker. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Mark D. Boughton
Mayor
