

CITY OF DANBURY

DANBURY, CONNECTICUT 06810

DEPARTMENT OF ELDERLY SERVICES
COMMISSION ON AGING

Danbury Senior Center
Elmwood Hall
10 Elmwood Place
(203) 797-4686

Susan M. Tomanio, LCSW

March 7, 2006

Report for Commission on Aging/Common Council

Municipal Agent
80 Main Street
(203) 796-1513

Narrative/Key Indicators

February 2006

Senior Center

121 program offerings
Approximately 1732 participants
Approximately 2642 information and referral calls

Highlights: Medicare Part D Enrollment Day, Ballroom Dance Party with Kenny Lee Band, Valentine's Day Party with Entertainment provided by the Danbury High School Music Honor Society, AARP Tax Assistance, Fall Prevention, George Washington Music and Dance

Municipal Agent

30 in office visits, 14 visits to home bound seniors

Concerns & Trends of February: Communication between deaf children and their parents - directed client to Ct. Department of Rehabilitation and the Commission of Child Rights and Abuse, Employment and job opportunities in the area, Elder law - Ct. Legal Services, Ct. Consumer Law Project for Elders, Eligibility requirements (and some enrollment assistance) for: Medicare Rx Plans, Social Security Subsidy for Medicare Rx Plans, Medicare Supplemental, Medicaid, Ct. Prescription Program (ConnPACE), Energy Assistance, State, City, and Veteran Property Tax Programs, Comcast Senior Discounts, SBC Senior Discounts, Medicare Savings Programs, Senior Transportation Programs, Senior Subsidized and Affordable Housing, Credit Card problem and other financial concerns, 50th wedding anniversary congratulatory notes

SeniorNet

SeniorNet began new classes on January 23 offering Computer Fundamentals, Introduction to PC, Exploring Windows, Using the Internet, Custom Class designed to meet student needs, and MS Access.